Presidents' Message for May

Spring has arrived in Minnesota in the form of summer! Ha! Ha!

It's been a whirlwind time in April and May with many of our AAUW events. Book club, our regular April branch meeting with a Faribault native, Amy Vohs speaking on Climate Change, April 29-30 with 4 delegates, Pat Rice, Mary Lillquist, Karen Rasmussen and Kathy Larson attending the AAUW State Convention in St. Cloud, our Birthday Social for those having birthdays in April, May, June met at The Crooked Pint at 5:30 (thanks sue Olson) and our biggest event we are preparing for: Our anual book sale – for May 18-24!! Next Week

Of course, all the organizing, sorting books, designing flyers (Karen Rasmussen), printing flyers, doing schedules (Liz Hartman), checking on getting extra “help” to lift and haul our stored books, (Pat Rice) (Sentence to Serve guys from the prison), calling for recycling/garbage pickup (Pat Fuchs) arranging trucks (thanks to Bonnie and Greg Becker and Ken Kangas), anyone putting out the flyers, the people volunteering at the Faribo Mall to sort and organize the delivered books. Also, thanks to everyone who has helped and will be helping in some way! Thank you all!

As most of you know I, Kathy Larson, will be leaving my co-president post with Pat Rice. I had intended to do 2 years with her but in the meantime, my position as American Legion Auxiliary Chaplain was advanced to President the June because of some of the ALAux. Officers moving away. Pat has been a wonderful partner to Co – President with and I want to thank her so much for being such a cooperative, ,ind and fun Co – President! I will miss our meetings and planning together! If you haven’t served a leadership role in our AAUW branch or if you have years ago – please consider being the next Co – President with Pat for the 2022-23 year. Thank you.

I’d like to leave you with this thought: “Each one of us can Make a difference. Together we make change.” Barbara Mikulski

This is what the fellowship of our Faribault AAUW branch means to me.

Love, Kathy Larson

Birthday gals,
Ruth Hildebrandt and Shirley Norgarrd

Birthday gal, Carmen Tripp

Our speaker, Amy Vohs

- ☐ Workshops on Saturday included the challenges of keeping up a Branch website, Membership recruitment and retention, Strategic Policy and Rules of Governance, Fun with Fundraising.
- ☐ No site chosen or volunteered to host 2023 or 2024 State Convention to be known henceforth as the State Meeting.
